Lunch and Learn

SHOWING A MISSOURI YOU MAY NOT KNOW

Using accounts from the recently released Myths and Mysteries of Missouri, author Josh Young will lead us on an exciting journey around the state from the near and familiar to the extraordinary and the all-too-often unknown. Young's explorations include the stories of Tom Bass, a former slave who became a renowned horseman; Ella Ewing, one of the tallest women to have ever lived; and Jesse James, the personification of scars left by the Civil War. From mastodons to magic lights, Missouri is a land of marvels. This presentation will ensure that both Missouri natives and Show-Me State transplants fully appreciate the rich history of their state, and the many ways Missouri helps make America great.

Author and entrepreneur Josh Young was first introduced to the Missouri Ozarks during a year-long adventure traveling the United States. The region he now calls home was the inspiration for his recent book Myths and Mysteries of Missouri.

Join us for coffee and cookies at 9:30 a.m. BINGO beginning at 10:00 a.m. followed by our featured speaker, Josh Young. Lunch will be ready at noon, ending with a few door prizes.

Duquesne Community Building. • Cost is $13.00 per person • RSVP by February 9th
